

ZEITGEIST

Brave Work of Many Christians Rewrapped in Misinformation

A critique (5th edition) of the movie Zeitgeist

This is a critical review of the Zeitgeist video assertion that Christianity is a supreme falsehood and source of all conspiracies and those liars who keep Christianity going were involved in the destruction of 9/11/01 at the World Trade Center, Pentagon and Shanksville and blamed it on others to invade their nations, not to win a war but maintain a continual war on terror. The Zeitgeist movie may be seen in its entirety at www.zeitgeistmovie.com. The Zeitgeist, produced by Peter Joseph, won the 2007 award for Best Feature Documentary at the Activist Film Festival in Hollywood CA. It is reported on another website that this film is the most watched documentary on the internet. The source of its information is well documented in the credits at the end of the movie. It was seen by over 95,000 people in 400 cities and 70 countries on Zeitgeist Day March 15, 2008.

When I first received a copy of this video, I failed to watch it all the way through because I was annoyed at the beginning as it spent the first third of the movie in an attempt to refute the validity of the existence, merit, effectiveness, and authenticity of Jesus Christ as described in the Holy Bible. Zeitgeist was first given to me by people who had started a meetup group to study the facts surrounding the events of the so-called “terror attacks” of 9/11/01. I was surprised that such a long attack was made upon the validity of Jesus Christ and the association of the Christian church with all other religions and the forces of deception and wickedness that caused the 9/11/01 attacks and essentially all acts of terrorism that got America into World War I, II, Vietnam, Afghanistan and Iraq.

On the first viewing of Zeitgeist, I watched most of the attack on not only Christianity or the church but Christ Jesus. I then lost interest in watching what it had to say about the discovered facts regarding 9/11/01 because Christ Jesus and what he has done is all I really know for sure. I felt like someone or group was attempting to connect the attacks of 9/11/01 to the Christian church. I know better than that as I am quite familiar with the condition of the Christian churches in America as I have belonged to the Baptist, Methodists, and Presbyterian Churches for many years and I have written a book on the mechanics of salvation entitled “Alien Physics: The Physical Operation Performed Upon the Cosmos” (www.AlienPhysics.com). It is my view that the rise of the modern state of Israel in 1947 was made possible only by the total neutralization and castration of Western Christianity. A living powerful Christian church as was present in America at the Revolution in 1776 would have prevented the Jews from using the strength of America and Europe to steal Palestine from the Palestinians and rename it Israel. Generally I am also very suspicious of the motives of Western Jews in America and Europe related to their dual citizenship in Israel and the power they exercise over the West is obvious, especially in America.

I received an email from the Ron Paul meetup groups informing me they were going to hold a worldwide Zeitgeist day where all would watch, promote and hold public and private viewings of this video. I told a member of my Ron Paul group that I refused to watch the whole video as I found the first part very repulsive and suspicious in its motive. But the member said, "Those who are not very strong in their convictions cannot sit through a presentation all the way through to its conclusion for fear of what it might do to them." I am familiar with that line of logic and tend to hold it myself, therefore, I quickly decided to finally sit down and watch the whole thing and what follows is my assessment of Zeitgeist.

Zeitgeist is presented in three parts (like the Trinity, they may have stolen this from Christianity - I'm just kidding here). The first part is an attack upon Christianity by claiming that Christianity is a religion only of dogma and doctrine rather than real cosmic power from God and that it, like all other religions is mythology created wholly for the control and power over people. The video shows 40 minutes of similarities they claim exist between what Christ Jesus said and did with those of ancient Egyptian sun gods, none of which I was completely familiar with from my scant reading of Ancient Egyptian writings. The video tried to show that death, resurrection and ascension claims by Christ were also claimed by several other Egyptian gods or figures and that it was recorded on the walls of tombs. I really can't argue the merits of their similarities as I have not researched them. However, I can say with certainty that no man has ever told stories that no one could understand until he explained them to them as Christ did. There have been many wise sayings that reflect acute observations of the world around them but none that no one could understand until they were explained.

However, I will avoid explaining the path of faith I traveled to finally end up in a state of grace in the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth but will only say that I have died with Christ, been resurrected with Christ and have ascended to sit down in the heavenly places with him in his kingdom as a result of his death, resurrection and ascension. And because of that first hand experience I can confess that truth. The reader can accept my word as audible evidence of that fact from a fellow human being. The reader is free to accept or reject that audible evidence from their ears and the spatial significance of that statement. I will only critique the major flaws of the Zeitgeist.

Zeitgeist spent a long time showing that the disciples and the zodiac were the same and that Jesus was really the sun and that his date of birth on December 25th is no more than the natal star (they claim Sirius) lining up with the three stars in Orion's sword to show where the sun will rise. All this was a tad interesting and amusing and I do believe the dates of actual occurrences in the Bible are not known with real precision and for the most part are irrelevant.

The video then gave a bunch of scripture references to events that the Zeitgeist makers claim point to all the stories in the New Testament that are nothing more than a description of what was going to occur in the sky so they could plant crops and predict the movements of stars and planets, etc. I find that absolutely amazing that somebody could in an honest straight forward reading of the Bible conclude that it was only talking about the movement of planets and stars. Where is Saturn located by Christ's statement, "He that believeth in me shall never die?"

Let us review some claims and facts made and shown in the Zeitgeist that contradict their major thesis which is that Christ is not real and that those that propagate such notions are at the heart of dark, evil, sinister, manipulations and conspiracies that have destroyed America and much of the world and that we must reject Christianity as part of the problem that caused 9/11/01 conspiracies.

First, many of the people quoted in the second and third parts of the video to expose the dark secrets of conspiracies resulting in 911, World War I, II, and Iraq and Iran were Christians themselves. I personally know Dave Von Kleist¹, author and producer of 911 in Plain Site and 911 The Ripple Effect and I know he is a Christian beyond my doubt. I can say the same for George Humphrey² author of 911 the Great Illusion. Both of these Christian gentlemen have been to my Patriot Tavern the Silver Eagle Taphouse³ in McQueeney Texas on several occasions and I know what they say and believe. Alex Jones, a very outspoken warrior against the New World Order, whom the Zeitgeist quoted to expose the NWO, is a confessed Christian. I would venture to guess that others quoted in Zeitgeist like David Ray Griffin, Michael Ruppert, Jim Marrs and Eric Hufschmidt are also Christians. All these men comprise much of the brave first responders to expose the 9/11 government and media cover-ups.

Second, the Zeitgeist makes the solid claim that America started out fighting the central bankers and the lending practices of Europe and that Benjamin Franklin said this was the real cause of the revolution. We can conclude that the same central banker philosophy that is exposed as evil to the bone marrow later in the movie is the enemy of the newly formed United States of America. Further we know that America was formed on the principles of property developed by John Locke the son of a Calvinist Attorney as so stated by Thomas Jefferson. Therefore, a serious and devastating question to their thesis naturally arises, namely, if America was formed out of the protestant Christian philosophers of Europe struggling for freedom from monarchs and bankers why is it that the enemy of America and the people is now somehow the same Christian philosophy that gave birth to the best America has to offer mankind? Atheism was not the father of America or the liberties it proclaimed and “non-theist” cannot be the savior of either now.

Third, as I watched the Zeitgeist, I bet myself that the video would not expose the admission made on PBS in 2002 by Larry Silverstein (the World Trade Center Lease holder) that the 47 story WTC Building #7 was “pulled” by conventional demolition on 9/11/01. I was correct. This is critical information and the real key to understanding all of the 911 events. This reveals that WTC 7 was pre-wired for demolition while occupied and without a permit for destruction on that day. And, if Building #7 could be pre-wired with explosives under Larry Silverstein’s protection, why not the Twin Towers 1 and 2? But I surmised that Larry Silverstein would not be mentioned as he is obviously Jewish and that this evidence did not support the main theme of the Zeitgeist that Christianity is the primary evil distraction and tool of control to ruin America and the world via “the war on terrorism.”

Forth, no doubt, Christianity has been hijacked right along with the government in America but the Zeitgeist movie makes the point that the government in America has been corrupted by wicked influence over the years. Why then can the Zeitgeist makers not consider that the same is true for Christianity? The Zeitgeist makers could then do a film on how the Christian church in America was corrupted. Rather, however, they assert that Christianity was a fraud from the start and that Christ never existed at all. This position is just as insupportable as a claim that America was not started correctly either. Why protect anything that is not good from the start? America was not as perfect as Jesus Christ was in their beginnings.

In conclusion, we see that it is not necessary to get into all the Zeitgeist Part I claims about other Egyptian gods that are identical to Christ as their main thesis is contradicted in itself. The Zeitgeist is the kind of film that makes you wonder who produced it and paid for it and dispersed it and for what motive. I even wonder if they might have had something to do with 911 and are now attempting to blame it on Christians who are doing a very good job of exposing the whole conspiracy. Would that not be a technique to combat those you hate? Don't deny the facts that have surfaced by the work and bravery of those you hate; just blame it on the very people that exposed the facts by attacking their inclusive set known as Christianity. This is the work of the anti-christs. There is no connection between the first part of the Zeitgeist and the other two parts and the Zeitgeist fails to show evidence for any connection between Christ, the Christian church and the facts exposed in the other two parts. There are actually two movies in one. The first is an atheist's view of Christianity and then the other movie in two parts is about the facts that have been exposed since 9/11/01 that refute the government and media conspiracy theory that Muslim Radical Extremist Islamo-Fascist hijacked four airliners causing the complete destruction of the World Trade Center the strange damage at the Pentagon and left no 757 jet parts at either the Pentagon or Shanksville site. The second part of the second movie is about central banking that has caused all the wars since Andrew Jackson's time. That too further weakens the Zeitgeist thesis because global central banking is not the work of Christians but of Jews mostly and it has accelerated with the rise of Israel in the Middle East.

I want to add a comment made by Scott Goen, a member of a 911 Truth meetup group and good friend, in response to this critique. It is so pointed, clear, and concise that it needs to be heard:

"I read your review of Zeitgeist and I agree with you, though I am not as educated on the biblical subject matter as you. I told everyone in the group from the beginning that I felt it was a total disinformation piece designed to do two things:

1. Take a believing Christian who would reject the first part as untrue and therefore also cause them to reject the rest of the movie as well;
2. Take someone who believes the second and third part to be true and cause them to reject Christianity.

This is what the powers that be would like. I too reject the first part as totally bogus but feel that parts 2 and 3 are fairly accurate and powerfully portrayed."

The official website for Zeitgeist now says "We are currently not accepting any new emails due to the volume being received. Please check back." I think I know why Peter Joseph is receiving a lot of email.

Now we see the magnitude of the deceptive devices used by the anti-christ. Not only will they destroy property and kill citizens of the United States and blame it upon the Muslims to use Christians to attack the Middle East, but will then blame the Christians for the acts of the anti-christ in the murder and destruction at the World Trade Center. ■
