

A Christian Declaration in Global Defense of Natural Born Man Created in the Image of God

An Explanation based upon irrefutable political science and New Testament theology why the church cannot support and must resist the antichrist tyrannical efforts of the European Union and World Health Organization and any others to create the Global Digital Health Certification Network preventing humanity from entering society unless they obtain certification of subjection to government mandated medical procedures.

The Threat to the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth:

The World Health Organization (WHO) have joined with the European Union (EU) to form the Global Digital Health Certification Network (GDHCN) to create a new Digital Vaccine Passport system for the world. The following is an article by Derrick Broze published at BlacklistedNews.com and copied at RepublicBroadcasting.org (links provided at end):

On Monday (5 June 2023) the European Commission and the World Health Organization announced a “digital health” partnership to establish a new Digital Vaccine Passport system for the world.

The announcement by the EU and the WHO notes that the new digital identity scheme is building on the work of the EU Digital COVID Certificate which was enacted in June 2021 during the COVID-19 panic and is set to expire on June 30 (2023). According to the EU, more than 2.3 billion certificates were issued.

Thierry Breton, EU Commissioner on Internal Market, said he was “pleased that the WHO will build on the privacy-preserving principles and cutting-edge technology of the EU certificate to create a global tool against future pandemics.”

Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus claimed the digital certificates will “help people everywhere receive quality health services quickly and more effectively”. Ironically, the European Commission and WHO say the EU Vaccine Passport helped “facilitate safe free movement”. The reality is the passport program was one of several created by public-private partnerships between government and Non-Governmental Organizations and corporations which required individuals to show proof of vaccination to work, travel, or eat.

Now, the WHO wants to take the EU system and establish a global system that they claim will “help protect citizens across the world from on-going and future health threats, including pandemics”.

The press release also notes this latest partnership is part of an agreement signed in December 2022 by EU Commissioner Stella Kyriakides and WHO Director-General Dr Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus to “enhance strategic cooperation on global health issues”. The organizations say this new partnership “bolsters a robust multilateral system with WHO at its core”.

These statements amount to an acknowledgement that these type of programs begin at the transnational level with globalist organizations like the WHO and the EU before they trickle down to national governments, state and provinces, and, eventually, local councils.

The WHO's statement announcing the partnership describes it as the “first building block” of the WHO Global Digital Health Certification Network (GDHCN) that will “develop a wide range of digital products to deliver better health for all”. The WHO says the COVID-19 “pandemic response” taught them there is an “existing gap and continued need” for a mechanism to support verification of health documents for so-called “pandemic preparedness and continuity of care”.

The WHO also said the GDHCN can be an “infrastructural building block” for future additional use cases, including digitization of existing vaccine certificates, verification of prescriptions across borders, and verification of vaccine certificates within and across international borders.

The WHO also emphasized that the GDHCN “builds upon the experience of regional networks for COVID-19 Certificates” and uses the infrastructure of the EU Digital COVID Certificate system. This system has been adopted by all EU member states and 51 non-EU countries.

This document indicates that the EU was already working on plans to implement vaccination passports before most of the world had ever heard the term. As The Last American Vagabond has reported since July 2020, the push for vaccine passports is really a push for digital identity schemes which are part of the push for a “Great Reset” and the transformation of every industry on the planet.

The WEF and associates have been pushing the idea of immunity/vaccine passports since 2020 and the fact that these schemes are now reality is no coincidence. The fact that the European Commission, the executive branch of the EU, is partnered with the WEF is also no accident. In January 2021, European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen spoke at the WEF's annual Davos week that was specifically dedicated to the “Great Reset” vision.

The push for vaccine passports or digital identities is not coming from the people. There is no genuine call for these policies rising up from the grassroots. It is coming from various organizations, such as the Better Identity Coalition, with ties to cybersecurity spooks with connections to the national security state, U.S. and Israeli intelligence, banks, and corporations.

These schemes are also being sold to the people of the world under the guise of building a more equitable, sustainable, and just world. The United Nations is promoting the idea that digital identity is a human right in an effort to persuade the Global South and developing nations to participate. This is a scam.

In fact, in June 2022, New York University's (NYU) School of Law issued a 100-page report detailing the growing dangers of a reliance on digital identity around the world. The report, titled Paving a Digital Road to Hell?, examines the role of the World Bank and other international networks which have been promoting the use of digital ID in recent years.

The report notes that the World Bank has been “energetically promoting biometric and other digital ID systems that are increasingly linked to large-scale human rights violations, especially in the Global South”. The researchers warn that digital identity schemes “promoted in the name of development and inclusion, might be achieving neither”. Despite ostensible good intentions on the part of some promoting these systems, they “may well be paving a digital road to hell.”

The press release for the report notes (emphasis added):

“Governments around the world have been investing heavily in digital identification systems, often with biometric components (digital ID). The rapid proliferation of such systems is driven by a new development consensus, packaged and promoted by key global actors like the World Bank, but also by governments, foundations, vendors and consulting firms.”

In 2014, the World Bank launched the Identification for Development \(ID4D\) program with the aim of solving the problem of a lack of identity for much of the so-called “developing world”. The World Bank is funding digital biometric ID programs in Mexico, pushing digital ID in poorer countries with the ostensible goal of providing legal identity to the 1.1 billion people who do not currently have one.

The fact that the EU and the WHO are announcing a new vision for COVID-19 digital vaccine certificates may yet be a sign that the “powers-that-wish-they-were” are not done playing the “pandemic” card. Consider the recent statement of U.S. Health and Human Services Secretary Xavier Becerra while speaking to journalists in Geneva, Switzerland at the recent 76th meeting of the WHO’s World Health Assembly.

“I think we’ll get an accord in place if everyone realizes that our window before this next pandemic, this next health threat, is probably not far away.”

Whatever awaits humanity in the remainder of 2023 and 2024, we must unite all the people of the world who value bodily autonomy and individual liberty. We cannot thrive in the face of what is potentially on the horizon — whether plandemic or climate change lockdowns — if we are neutered by our petty arguments and divisive online debates. If we want liberty, we must stand together now, like never before.<sup>1</sup>

Why is the WHO a Threat to the Kingdom of God:

The foregoing article and the links provided therein prove that there is a joint effort among the antichrist schemers to make natural born man created in the image of God a threat to society by claiming that all mankind needs to have certain medical treatments, e.g., vaccines, or injections, or tests done on them, before they can be allowed to participate in society at any level. This claim presumes that natural born man is indeed a threat to society and this natural condition must be made safe by government/corporate labs and when the treated man is made safe he can be issued a safety permit to participate in society.

This is a false presumption that ignores the fact that mankind is created by God to live perfectly in the world that God made for him.

Genesis 1:26-28 And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

Natural born man is created in the image of God and now reconciled to God by the operation of the death, resurrection and ascension of Christ Jesus along with all things in the cosmos, complete, needing nothing, to create and live in lawful societies.

Colossians 1:12-23 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet (worthy, just) to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature:

16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight:

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;

Amen to that! Now that all things have been reconciled unto God and are unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight, are we now to think that we are a danger to society? What kind of society would find that redeemed man living on a reconciled earth in a reconciled cosmos needs a medical procedure to be safe? It is not the natural born man that is a threat to society but the unlawful actions of those who reject the knowledge that Christ Jesus has created the world and mankind to live in it perfectly and redeemed both.

Man Lacks Nothing to Enter Society He Creates to Protect His Property

Is there something missing in natural born man that needs to be provided by scientists to make them safe to enter society?

Colossians 2:8-15 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 ¶And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

Now that we are complete in Christ Jesus who is the head of all principality and power, why do you submit to the medical demands of unredeemed people who have rejected the truth of the Good News of Christ Jesus and live in darkness and design and advocate Satanic plans to enslave mankind by making them take endless injections and receive an implant to verify their safety and receive their digital compliance currency upload, download and termination?

Since this Christian Declaration is being written on Juneteenth or June 19, 2023 it is most appropriate to link to a documentary on the efforts of antichrist Bill Gates and the WHO to sterilize young black girls and women in Kenya over several years with a "tetanus vaccine" that was chemically combined with bHGC which creates antibodies that attack the fetus just as the other part of the molecule creates antibodies to attack tetanus. You must see to believe how aggressively the WHO and Bill Gates persuaded the Kenyan government went after the Catholic church and its health care facilities in Kenya to continue its sterilization vaccine. The WHO and Bill Gates and the World Bank and the World Economic Forum must be shut down completely.

Injection Mandates Destroy Lawful Government

All lawful Governments are limited in their authority because each individual citizen is limited in their authority. All lawful governments obtain authority from direct delegation of each citizen of their authority to protect their property consisting of life, liberty and possessions. Each citizen has an authority to defend themselves from a pandemic as they see fit, e.g., wear a mask, stay home, close their business, stay six feet away from others and take an injection. But they have no authority to tell their neighbor to do the same. Every citizen has the same identical authority and therefore, none can delegate to government the authority to tell all people or anyone to do those things to avoid a pandemic. Therefore government has authority to prevent you from making someone do those things and to prevent others from making you stop doing those things. For the government to make all people do those things before they can participate in society is tyranny. This is because the definition of tyranny is the exercise of power without authority. This is contained in Article 1 Section 2 of the Texas Constitution but applies to all lawful governments as stated therein.
